PROGRAM:

"The October program will be "Show and Tell" night. Bring a work-in-progress to show or a completed piece that you would like either feedback on from the group or just to show. Also, please describe any new technique that you are using that you think would be interesting and valuable for the group to know. There will be no structured presentation and no one in particular will be doing a critique. The group as a whole can offer their insights if so requested. Please let Mari know (769-9993) if you are considering bringing in a piece to be certain that enough time will be available for everyone. "
