RELEASE OF LIABILITY:

I acknowledge that I am responsible for set up and security of my artwork, tables, tents and any other property I use at Art in the Park. The Petaluma Arts Association will not be responsible for artwork or for sales. Exhibits, sales and security are the sole responsibility of the participant. I hereby for myself, my heirs, executors, administrators or anyone else who might claim on my behalf, agree not to sue and unconditionally waive, release and discharge the event officials, volunteers, PAA, the City of Petaluma and any/all sponsors of this event from any and all claims of liability for personal injury or property damage/theft of any kind. Individual insurance is recommended. I understand that I am required to collect and pay sales tax on all sales. I also understand that Walnut Park is a no smoking/alcohol free zone and I agree not to smoke or use alcohol while in Walnut Park and will enforce this policy with my friends and customers. Driving into the park on the pathways and grass is not allowed, per "Petaluma Park Dist." PAA requests vendors not to bring pets.

 Potential High Winds: All booths must be properly anchored. No stakes allowed. Canopy weights are recommended. We suggest anchoring any other equipment used, as these may blow over as well.
